Passport
Network

Who we are: We are a group of engaged and dedicated stakeholders serving young adults ages 18 to 26 impacted by the foster care system or unaccompanied homelessness in Pierce and Kitsap counties. Our membership includes staff from community-based organizations, K-12 schools, post-secondary institutions, and state agencies.

Mission: Facilitate collaboration among local service providers and address barriers to further empower students to achieve their transition, retention, and completion of post-secondary educational goals. In addition, we also support individuals who are pursuing skilled trade/apprenticeships programs and professional job training.

MEETING OBJECTIVES

1. Foster connections among members of the Pierce Kitsap Passport Network.
2. Educate members on resources provided by Coffee Oasis.
